Rev. W. A. Cunningham,
Stellarton, N.S.

Dear Mr. Cunningham:

I do not know any one in St. John's Church, Cornwall, to whom I could write. I have not been in Cornwall since coming to Ontario, and it is a long way east from here. I shall be glad to have you refer any of your correspondents in Cornwall to me for any information that I may be able to give them. I know nothing about the Church and its prospects, whether it is more promising than Stellarton or not. Quite a large number of my old students are in Ontario, but unfortunately I see very little of them. With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.

Rev. W. A. Cunningham,

Stellarton, N.S.

Dear Mr. Cunningham:

I have this morning written to
Mr. Harkness of Cornwall in your favour, and I hope that my letter may be of some service to you.

Yours sincerely,

Fresident.
